TERMINAL DISCLAIMER

Assistant Commissioner of Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

Your Petitioner, Allan A. Fanucci, represents that he is a partner in the law firm of Winston & Strawn, and is the attorney of record for the present application.

Your petitioner states that Gilbert Bloch, Gerald Bloch and Arnold B. Finestone are the co-inventors and owners of the entire interest in and to the above-identified application.

This petition is made on the behalf of the co-inventors/owners.

Petitioner hereby disclaims the terminal part of any patent granted on the above identified application which would extend beyond the expiration date of U.S. Patent 6,235,386 and hereby agrees that any patent so granted on the above identified application shall be enforceable only for and during such period that the legal title to said patent shall be the same as the legal title of U.S. Patent 6,235,386.

Petitioner further agrees that this agreement is to run with any patent granted on the above-identified application and is to be binding upon the grantees, their successors and their assigns.

TC 1700

Petitioner does not disclaim any terminal part of any patent which issues on the above-identified application prior to the expiration date of U.S. Patent 6,235,386 in the event that that patent: is held unenforceable, is found invalid, is statutorily disclaimed in whole or terminally disclaimed under 37 C.F.R. 1.321(a), has all claims canceled by a reexamination certificate, or is otherwise terminated prior to the expiration of its full statutory term, except for the separation of legal title stated above.

Petitioner hereby confirms that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, title is in the co-inventors seeking to take action in this matter and that he is empowered to act on their behalf.

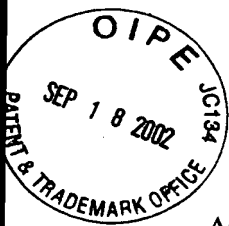

Petitioner hereby declares that all statements made herein of his own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made, are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.

Signed this 18th day of September, 2002.
